TERRY PEGULA OWNER/CEO

Terry Pegula is a self-made success story, rising from humble beginnings to become one of the most respected leaders in the energy industry and one of very few professional sports owners to operate franchises in multiple sports.

On Feb. 22, 2011, Terry and Kim Pegula, who had previously been season ticket holders, realized their dream of owning a hockey franchise by purchasing the NHL's Buffalo Sabres. They followed up their commitment to hockey by purchasing the AHL's Rochester Americans later that year, restoring a longtime affiliation between the Sabres and Amerks.

Together with Kim, Terry added another franchise to their Buffalo holdings on Oct. 10, 2014. The Pegulas received the unanimous approval of NFL owners to succeed Pro Football Hall of Famer Ralph C. Wilson, Jr. and become the second owners in the storied history of the Buffalo Bills.

Terry serves as CEO of the Bills and currently sits on the NFL's Health and Safety committee. In 2016, the Pegulas were honored with the Tank Younger Award, which recognizes extraordinary contributions toward diversity in the NFL. In addition to the Sabres and Bills, Terry and Kim's ownership also extends to the NLL's Buffalo Bandits and Rochester Knighthawks.

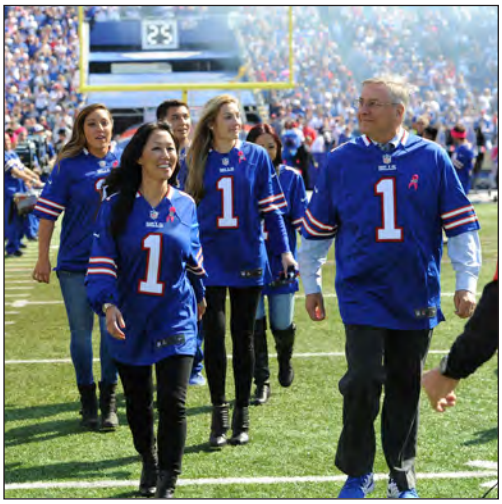
Raised in Carbondale, Pennsylvania, Terry is a 1969 graduate of Scranton Preparatory School. He entered Penn State University as a math major and was accepted into the Petroleum and Natural Gas Engineering Program with a scholarship. He went on to graduate with a Bachelor of Science degree in 1973 and landed his first job with Getty Oil Co. in Victoria, Texas. He later joined Felmont Oil Co. as an Area Engineer, a decision that brought him to Olean, New York in 1975.

In 1983, Terry borrowed $7,500 from family and friends to create East Resources Inc., an independent oil and gas exploration and production company operating in the Appalachian Basin. Over the next 27 years, Terry built East into one of the largest privately held companies in the United States. In July of 2010, Royal Dutch Shell purchased the assets of East Resources Inc., which continues to be active today. In 2012, Terry formed JKLM Energy. JKLM is staffed with many former East Resources employees and takes pride in contributing to U.S. energy independence by producing Pennsylvania natural gas, elevating the state into one of the top-producing regions in the world.

Upon the sale of East Resources assets, Terry focused his attention on his love of sports. In September of 2010, the Pegulas announced a gift of $102 million to construct Pegula Ice Arena, paving the way for Division I hockey at Penn State and helping to form the Big Ten Hockey Conference.

The Pegulas then began construction of a multipurpose ice complex and opened LECOM Harborcenter in 2014. The more than $200 million dollar, personally financed complex, next door to the Sabres' KeyBank Center, includes two NHL-size hockey rinks, training facilities, four restaurants, a full-service Marriott Hotel and parking. The combination of KeyBank Center and LECOM Harborcenter have allowed Buffalo to be a center for hockey, hosting the 2016 NHL Draft, NHL Combine, 2018 IIHF World Junior Championship and the 2019 Men's NCAA Frozen Four.

In addition to overseeing the family's sports operations, Terry runs JKLM Energy in Pittsburgh and his business operations in Boca Raton, Florida. Terry and Kim have five children between them: Michael, Laura, Jessica, Kelly and Matthew.



KIM PEGULA OWNER/PRESIDENT

Kim Pegula has been a dedicated champion for the Western New York region from the moment she and her husband Terry relocated here to complete their purchase of the Buffalo Sabres in 2011. As Owner and President of both the Sabres and Buffalo Bills – in addition to President and CEO of Pegula Sports & Entertainment (PSE) – she has built a life around shepherding this area's most beloved teams.

The Pegulas' purchase of the Sabres on Feb. 22, 2011 was a homecoming of sorts, as both Kim and Terry have strong personal ties to the region. Later that year, they purchased the AHL's Rochester Americans, thus restoring a time-honored affiliation between the two teams. Kim and Terry's ownership also extends to the NLL's Buffalo Bandits and Rochester Knighthawks.

On Oct. 8, 2014, Kim and Terry further cemented their status as Western New York leaders by purchasing the Buffalo Bills. They are only the second owners in franchise history and Kim has become the first female president of both an NHL and NFL team, overseeing the day-to-day business operations of each franchise. Since then, she has grown into and expanded her role as an organizational leader, focusing not just on the administrative side of ownership, but stressing the importance of community involvement and corporate social responsibility as well.

Kim is committed to bringing diversity to sport, serving as co-chair of the NHL's Executive Inclusion Committee, along with sitting on the NFL's Workplace Diversity Committee. She is also a board of directors member for the Hockey Hall of Fame and a member of several NFL committees including the Fan Engagement and Major Events Advisory Committee, Business Ventures, and the NFL Foundation Committee. She and Terry have been recognized with the Tank Younger Award for embracing diversity in the NFL and their involvement in the Buffalo community landed the Pegulas on the Buffalo Business First Most Influential People list. PSE has also been honored with several NYS Emmy Awards for sports content and was named as one of Buffalo's Best Places to Work.

The Pegulas' sincere commitment to excellence in Western New York extends far beyond the teams they own. They have invested more than $200 million of private funds to build LECOM Harborcenter, which opened in 2014. This multipurpose facility is anchored by two NHL-size ice rinks and a Marriott Hotel franchise. Between KeyBank Center and LECOM Harborcenter, Buffalo has been home to the NHL Scouting Combine and has hosted the 2016 NHL Draft, 2018 IIHF World Junior Championship, and the 2019 NCAA Men's Frozen Four. During the COVID-19 pandemic, the Pegulas have donated $1.2 million to various relief efforts in Western New York and Kim serves on Governor Andrew Cuomo's Reopening Advisory Board for New York State.

In addition to their experience in professional sports, Kim and Terry have been committed to the growth of sports at the collegiate level. In 2010, they donated $102 million for the creation of Pegula Ice Arena at Penn State University. The facility allowed Penn State to create an NCAA Division I hockey program. Kim also supported Houghton College with a gift of $12 million to build the Kerr-Pegula Athletic Complex, allowing Houghton's athletic department to become a Division III program.

Born in Seoul, South Korea on June 7, 1969, Kim was adopted at the age of 5 by Ralph and Marilyn Kerr and moved to Fairport, New York, a suburb of Rochester. She attended nearby Houghton College and graduated in 1991 with a degree in communications. Kim began her professional career with East Resources in 1991 and was involved with the company until its sale in 2010.

Terry and Kim have five children between them: Michael, Laura, Jessica, Kelly and Matthew.

KEVYN ADAMS GENERAL MANAGER

Kevyn Adams was named the ninth general manager in Buffalo Sabres franchise history on June 16, 2020. The 2020-21 season will mark his first as general manager and sixth overall with the franchise.

A native of Clarence, New York, Adams originally joined the Sabres' organization in 2009 as player development coach, a role he held for two seasons before serving as an assistant coach during the 2011-12 and 2012-13 campaigns.

Beginning in 2013, Adams was instrumental in building the Academy of Hockey program at LECOM Harborcenter from its inception while also serving as president of the Buffalo Jr. Sabres. He was elevated to general manager of LECOM Harborcenter in January 2019. In September of 2019, Adams was named the Sabres' vice president of business administration. In that role, he oversaw the day-to-day business operations of the team throughout the 2019-20 season.

Prior to his time with the Sabres and LECOM Harborcenter, Adams had a Hall-of-Fame playing career at Miami (OH) University and was a first-round pick of the Boston Bruins in the 1993 NHL Draft. Adams spent 11 seasons playing in the National Hockey League for the Toronto Maple Leafs, Columbus Blue Jackets, Florida Panthers, Carolina Hurricanes, Phoenix Coyotes and Chicago Blackhawks. He was an alternate captain on the Hurricanes team that captured the Stanley Cup in 2006.

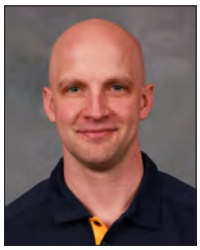
Adams received his bachelor's degree in 1996 from Miami (OH) University and his master's degree in business administration from the University of Phoenix in 2014. As a player, he was very active with the NHLPA and, following his career, worked with O2K Worldwide Management Group in player development and player scouting.

MARK JAKUBOWSKI VICE PRESIDENT OF HOCKEY ADMINISTRATION

Mark Jakubowski is in his 16th year with the Sabres and his fourth as vice president of hockey administration. Before moving to his current role, Jakubowski spent three seasons serving as the team's assistant general manager after spending seven seasons as assistant to the general manager.

His responsibilities include salary cap analysis, contract research relating to player negotiations and arbitrations, managing player transfers, team roster administration, and all matters relating to compliance with the NHL Collective Bargaining Agreement and other NHL agreements. Jakubowski also assists with the American Hockey League hockey operations of the team's minor league affiliate, the Rochester Americans.

JEREMIAH CROWE DIRECTOR OF SCOUTING



Jeremiah Crowe was named director of scouting in June 2020 and enters his first season in that role for the Sabres.

Crowe began his career with a professional scouting internship with the Sabres in 2008 and re-joined the team in 2017-18 for his first of three seasons as a pro scout. Before his time with the Sabres, Crowe spent two seasons with USA Hockey's National Team Development Program. He served as assistant director of player personnel in 2015-16 before being promoted to director of player personnel for the 2016-17 season.

Prior to joining USA Hockey, Crowe worked as a coach at LECOM Harborcenter's Academy of Hockey beginning at the Academy's inception in 2014. He also spent two seasons (2013-14 and 2014-15) as a scout for the Dubuque Fighting Saints (USHL) and served as an assistant coach at Buffalo State College from 2011-12 through 2013-14.

A native of Kenmore, New York, Crowe appeared in 91 NCAA games as a defenseman for the Clarkson Golden Knights and won the school's fifth ECAC Championship as a freshman in 2006-07.

JASON NIGHTINGALE ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF SCOUTING/DIRECTOR OF ANALYTICS

Jason Nightingale was promoted to assistant director of scouting in June 2020, adding to his role as director of analytics.

Nightingale first joined the organization in the analytics department in 2013-14 and was promoted to the role of director of analytics before the 2018-19 season. The 2020-21 campaign will be his eighth season as a member of the Sabres front office.

Before joining the Sabres, Nightingale earned a joint Ph.D. in Mathematics and Aerospace and Mechanical Engineering from the University of Notre Dame in 2013, where he also served as a volunteer assistant coach for the men's hockey team for two seasons. Nightingale also spent three seasons as a coach with Culver Military Academy and two seasons at Marian High School in Indiana, as well as a role at several USA Hockey national camps.

As a player, Nightingale was a four-year letter winner at Lake Superior State while earning his undergraduate degree. He also served as an alternate captain for the Des Moines Buccaneers (USHL) in 1997-98, helping lead the Buccaneers to a regular-season title, a Clark Cup appearance and a USA Hockey Gold Cup title.

RALPH KRUEGER HEAD COACH

Ralph Krueger was named the 19th head coach in Buffalo Sabres history on May 15, 2019 and he is currently in his second season behind the bench for the team in 2020-21.

In his first season at the helm, Krueger guided the team to improvements in points percentage, goals for per game and goals against per game. The Sabres also posted their highest regulation win total since 2016-17 despite playing only 69 games due to a shortened season.

Krueger returned to the NHL in 2019-20 after spending six seasons as the Chairman of Southampton Football Club, a soccer team that currently plays in England's Premier League. During his tenure in England, Krueger helped guide Southampton to four consecutive top-eight finishes in England's top league for the first time in the club's 127-year history.

Before his time in soccer, Krueger served as the head coach of the Edmonton Oilers during the 2012-13 season after spending the 2010-11 and 2011-12 campaigns as the team's associate coach. From the time he joined the Oilers in 2010, Krueger was part of a coaching staff that helped improve the team's goals against per game by .66 in three years, culminating in the sixth-best mark in franchise history (2.73) during his only season as head coach. Prior to beginning his NHL coaching career with Edmonton, Krueger served as a European Consultant for the Carolina Hurricanes from 2005 to 2010.

A native of Winnipeg, Manitoba, Krueger also boasts extensive experience in international competitions. In 2014, he won an Olympic gold medal as a consultant to Team Canada's coaching staff. Most recently, he served as the head coach of Team Europe, who finished as runners up at the 2016 World Cup of Hockey.

Krueger began his coaching career during the 1991-92 season as head coach of VEU Feldkirch in the Austrian Hockey League, where he spent seven seasons and led the team to five consecutive championships (1994 to 1998) and a European Champions League title in 1998. He spent the next 13 years as head coach of the Swiss national team, serving behind Switzerland's bench for three Winter Olympic Games and 12 IIHF World Championships. During his time with Team Switzerland, the team moved from No. 15 to No. 7 in the World Rankings.

As a player, Krueger played 12 seasons professionally in Germany, nine of which came in the country's top division. In his only season in North America, Krueger recorded 85 points (30+55) in 65 WHL games for the Calgary Wranglers and New Westminster Bruins in 1979-80. Krueger also represented West Germany as a forward at both the 1981 and 1986 IIHF World Championships.

MIKE BALES ASSISTANT COACH

Mike Bales enters his second season as an assistant coach for the Sabres in 2020-21. Under his tutelage, the Sabres' goaltenders helped improved the team's goals against ranking at 5-on-5 by 17 spots to 10th in the NHL in 2019-20. The team's goaltenders also ranked 11th in the NHL in 5-on-5 save percentage, a 14-place improvement on the previous season.

Bales joined the organization with six seasons of experience as a goaltending coach in the National Hockey League. The Prince Albert, Saskatchewan native had spent the previous two seasons with the Carolina Hurricanes, during which the team recorded an 82-64-18 regular-season record.

Prior to joining the Hurricanes, Bales spent six seasons with the Pittsburgh Penguins (2011-12 to 2016-17), winning the Stanley Cup in each of his final two seasons as a member of the Penguins' staff. Originally hired by Pittsburgh in 2011 as a goaltender development coach, his first two seasons with the team were highlighted by helping to scout, draft and develop Penguins goaltender Matt Murray.

Bales was promoted to serve as the Penguins' goaltending coach prior to the 2013-14 season. While serving on the team's coaching staff, he oversaw a four-year span during which the team's goaltenders posted the seventh-best save percentage in the league.

Bales played 18 seasons of professional hockey as a goaltender. He was selected by the Boston Bruins in the fifth round of the 1990 NHL Draft and appeared in 23 NHL games with the Bruins and Ottawa Senators.

DON GRANATO ASSISTANT COACH

Don Granato will again serve as an assistant coach for the Sabres this season after he was hired to the position in June 2019.

Before being hired by the Sabres, Granato spent two seasons as an assistant coach for the Chicago Blackhawks after serving as the associate head coach for the University of Wisconsin during the 2016-17 season.

During his coaching career, Granato spent seven total seasons in the St. Louis Blues organization, including one season as an assistant coach for the Blues (2005-06). He also served as the head coach for the Worcester IceCats, St. Louis' AHL affiliate, for five seasons (2000-01 to 2004-05). In his first season with the IceCats, Granato was the recipient of the Louis A.R. Pieri Memorial Award, awarded annually to the AHL's most outstanding coach. He later spent parts of two seasons with the Chicago Wolves (AHL) as the club's head coach from 2008-09 to 2009-10.

Granato began his coaching career in the USHL during the 1993-94 season as the interim head coach of the Wisconsin Capitols. He became general manager and head coach of the Green Bay Gamblers the following campaign and led the team to the best record in the USHL in 1995-96 and 1996-97. The following season, Granato moved to the ECHL, where he spent two seasons as general manager and head coach of the Columbus Chill before winning the Kelly Cup in his only season as head coach of the Peoria Rivermen in 1999-00.

A native of Downers Grove, Illinois, Granato also has extensive experience as a coach at the national level for the United States. From 2011-12 to 2015-16, Granato served as a head coach at the United States National Team Development Program, where he led his teams to victories at the 2014 World Under-17 Hockey Challenge and the 2015 IIHF Under-18 World Championship. He was also an assistant coach for Team USA at the 2015 IIHF World Junior Championship and at the 2014 and 2018 IIHF World Championships.

As a player, he captured an NCAA Championship with the University of Wisconsin in 1990. He spent two seasons in the ECHL with Columbus, posting 90 points (26+64) in 103 career contests.

STEVE SMITH ASSISTANT COACH

Before joining the Sabres, Smith served as an assistant coach for the Carolina Hurricanes for four seasons. During his tenure, the Hurricanes allowed the second-fewest shots per game (28) of any NHL team. Prior to joining the Carolina coaching staff, the Glasgow, Scotland native served as an assistant coach for the Edmonton Oilers from 2010-11 to 2013-14 and for the Calgary Flames in 1997-98. His off-ice NHL experience is rounded out by two seasons as a scout for the Chicago Blackhawks in 2008-09 and 2009-10.

During his 16-season NHL playing career, Smith won three Stanley Cups (1987, 1988 and 1990), one Canada Cup (1991) and appeared in one NHL All-Star Game (1991) as a member of the Oilers. In 804 total regular-season games as a defenseman with the Oilers, Blackhawks and Flames, Smith totaled 375 points (72+303). He added 52 points (11+41) in 134 career Stanley Cup Playoff games.

2019-20 | HIGHLIGHTS

- Scored a career-best 36 goals despite playing just 68 games, ranking eighth in the league; tied for 10th in points (78) and third in game-winning goals (9).
- Set a new career high with 1.15 points per game, marking the highest scoring rate by a Sabre since Daniel Briere (1.17) in 2006-07. His .53 goals per game was the highest rate by a Sabre since Thomas Vanek (.55) in 2008-09.
- Finished the season ranked eighth in the league with 1.40 points per game at home (49 points in 35 games). It was the highest home scoring rate by a Sabre with at least five home games played since Pat LaFontaine recorded 19 points in 13 home games (1.46) in 1994-95.
- Joined Gilbert Perreault (1976-77 and 1977-78), Pierre Turgeon (1988-89 and 1989-90), Miroslav Satan (2001-02 and 2002-03) and Thomas Vanek (2010-11 and 2012-13) as the fifth player to lead (or tie to lead) the Sabres in all three major scoring categories (goals, assists and points) twice in his career (2017-18 and 2019-20).
- Finished the season as one of three players in franchise history to score 20 or more goals in each of his first five NHL seasons (Rick Martin and Thomas Vanek) and one of five to record at least 50 points in each of his first five NHL seasons (Martin, Gilbert Perreault, Phil Housley and Christian Ruuttu).
- Appeared in his third consecutive NHL All-Star Game in 2020, becoming the first Sabres player to do so since Alexander Mogilny (1992, 1993, 1994).
- Tied Gilbert Perreault's record for most consecutive appearances with a point by a Sabre (18), tallying 32 points (16+16) from Nov. 16 to Dec. 21; because he missed a game due to injury during this stretch (Dec. 19 at Philadelphia), the streak was officially listed as 17 games, which still stood as the longest by an NHL player in 2019-20.
- Selected as the NHL's Third Star of the Week in consecutive weeks (Dec. 9 and 16) during the point streak.
- Scored four goals vs. Ottawa on Nov. 16 to become the Sabres' first four-goal scorer since Thomas Vanek (April 10, 2010 at Ottawa).
- Became the first Sabre ever to score on a penalty shot in overtime with his game-winner on Jan. 2 vs. Edmonton. The goal was his seventh career overtime goal, breaking the previous franchise record of six. He finished the season with eight career overtime goals.

PROFESSIONAL CAREER | HIGHLIGHTS

- Was named the 19th full-season captain in franchise history on Oct. 3, 2018, becoming the youngest captain in Sabres history (21 years, 341 days).
- With his goal on March 23, 2019 at Montreal, became the second-youngest player ever to score against 30 different NHL teams, trailing only Aleksander Barkov, who did it seven days younger. Only Artemi Panarin had done it in fewer games.
- In 2017-18, became the ninth different player in franchise history to lead the team or tie for the team lead in goals, assists and points. At 21 years of age, he was the youngest player to do so since Pierre Turgeon in 1989-90.
- With his 25th goal of the season on March 29, 2018 vs. Detroit, he became the first Sabre aged 21 or younger to reach the 25-goal mark since Pierre Turgeon did so in the 1990-91 season.
- His five assists on March 31, 2018 at Nashville tied the Sabres' franchise record for most assists in a game. He joined Gilbert Perreault (3x), Pat LaFontaine (3x) and Dale Hawerchuk as the only players in Sabres history to accomplish this feat.
- At 20 years of age in 2016-17, became just the fourth different player in Sabres history to lead the team (or tie for the team lead) in points before his 21st birthday.
- His .93 points per game in 2016-17 ranked 11th among NHL skaters with at least 20 games played and were the most by a Sabre under the age of 21 since Pierre Turgeon (1.33) in 1989-90.
- Recorded an 11-game point streak (5+11) from Feb. 14 to March 7, 2017 that tied as the fourth-longest NHL streak of the 2016-17 season and was the longest by a Sabre since Tim Connolly (16) in 2009-10; the streak included a nine-game assist streak that was the longest in the league in 2016-17.
- Scored 24 goals as a rookie in 2015-16 (seventh-most by a rookie in franchise history) and became the first Sabres rookie to lead the team in goals since Ray Sheppard (1987-88).
- His 56 points in 2015-16 tied Derek Plante for the seventh-most points ever scored by a Sabres rookie, making him the ninth rookie in franchise history to record 50 points in a season and the first since Plante (1993-94).

BUFFALO SABRES RETIRED NUMBERS

The Buffalo Sabres have retired only seven numbers since the franchise's inception in 1970. The first Sabre to have his number retired was Gilbert Perreault (#11) on Oct. 17, 1990. The combination of center Perreault, left wing Rick Martin and right wing Rene Robert was one of the greatest lines in hockey history and without a doubt the best in Buffalo Sabres history. The three wore the blue and gold together from 1972 to 1979 and were labeled "The French Connection," a name whose familiarity was helped by the 1971 movie of the same name. The trio was honored as Martin (#7) and Robert (#14) joined Perreault in a ceremony to retire the numbers of Buffalo's famed "French Connection" on Nov. 15, 1995. The fourth Sabre to have his number retired was Tim Horton (#2) on Jan. 5, 1996. The Sabres retired two more numbers during the 2005-06 season. Right winger Danny Gare (#18) was honored on Nov. 22, 2005, while Pat LaFontaine's #16 was hoisted to the rafters on March 3, 2006. On Jan. 13, 2015, Dominik Hasek became the seventh player – and first goaltender – to have his number retired by the team.

Gilbert Perreault can best be described as the "Original Sabre." The NHL Hall of Famer was Buffalo's first ever draft choice and set the standard by which all future Sabres would be measured. Perreault earned the Calder Trophy as the NHL's Rookie of the Year following his inaugural 1970-71 campaign. Even Perreault's uniform number bore the marks of an original Sabre, as it was #11 that came up on the wheel that gave Buffalo the first overall pick in the 1970 draft. Perreault's sportsmanship and outstanding play also helped him capture the Lady Byng Trophy in 1973. One of Perreault's six NHL All-Star Games was the 1978 edition in Buffalo when he scored the game-winning goal 3:55 into overtime. He also served as the Sabres' team captain from 1981-82 until his November 1986 retirement. Perreault is a member of the Hockey Hall of Fame, as well as both the Buffalo Sabres and Greater Buffalo Sports Halls of Fame. Perreault is still the team's all-time leader in career (regular season) games played, goals, assists, points and game-winning goals. There was only one number 11 in Buffalo Sabres history and, rightfully so, there will never be another.

Buffalo Sabres fans saw Rick Martin in almost 750 regular-season and playoff games between 1971 and 1981. Number 7's career with the Sabres was highlighted by a Stanley Cup Final appearance in 1974-75. That spring, Martin finished with 52 goals – one of which was the 1,000th in team history. The year prior, on the final night of the 1973-74 campaign, he recorded a hat trick at "The Aud" against St. Louis to become the first player in Sabres' history to record 50 or more goals in one season. Martin even gave the hometown fans a reason to cheer in a game at "The Aud" in which he wasn't wearing a Sabres uniform. On Jan. 24, 1978, he scored the tying goal in the 31st NHL All-Star Game with just 1:39 left in regulation time to force overtime. That was just one of seven of the league's showcase games he would appear in during his career. He still holds the Sabres' records for most goals (44) and points (74) by a rookie and his 21 career hat tricks are a franchise-high. In addition, Martin remains in the top three in seven of Buffalo's (regular season) career leaders categories. Martin passed away on March 13, 2011, and his life was celebrated in a public memorial service at HSBC Arena on March 24. The team honored his memory by painting the number seven on the ice behind each goal for the remainder of the regular season and playoffs.

With the warm spring air mixing with "The Aud" ice, Rene Robert skated out of the mist and scored the famous "Fog Goal" by beating Flyers goalie Bernie Parent in overtime of game three of the 1975 Stanley Cup Final. The historic goal might not have taken place if not for the Sabres' persistence in acquiring Robert. His road to Buffalo started with the Sabres claiming him from Toronto, only to lose the winger to Pittsburgh in the Intra-League draft on June 8, 1971. The Sabres were then able to acquire the final component of "The French Connection" in a trade with the Penguins on March 4, 1972. Robert finished the 1974-75 regular season with 100 points, marking the first time in club annals that a player reached the century mark in points in one season. That season, Robert was voted by his teammates as Buffalo's most valuable player. Robert still ranks as Buffalo's fifth all-time assist leader with 330 in his career with the Sabres. Coincidentally, Robert had also once worn number 7 in the blue and gold. He played in both the 1973 and 1975 NHL All-Star Games.

Tim Horton skated in the Sabres' blue, white and gold for only two seasons, but the solid defenseman certainly made his mark on the team. Horton came to Buffalo in the intra-league draft in June 1972 from Pittsburgh. Following that campaign, proof that he had made an impression on his fourth NHL club (also played for Toronto, NY Rangers and Pittsburgh) came when he was named the recipient of the Memorial Award as the team's most valuable player as voted by his teammates. Horton saw action in 1,446 NHL regular-season games plus 126 more in the postseason. Included in his playing days were eight out of nine complete 70-game seasons played between 1958-59 and 1966-67. Horton was a member of four Stanley Cup winning teams with Toronto and appeared in seven NHL All-Star Games. Horton became a member of the Hockey Hall of Fame in 1977 and is also a member of the Buffalo Sabres Hall of Fame.

Danny Gare played his first game for the Sabres on Oct. 10, 1974 against Boston and scored just 18 seconds into his first NHL shift. He finished his rookie season with 62 points (31+31) and contributed 13 points (7+6) in the Sabres' run to the 1975 Stanley Cup Finals. Gare followed up his strong rookie campaign with his first of two 50-goal seasons in 1975-76, when he netted 50 goals and 23 assists in 79 games and chipped in two game-winning goals in the playoffs. That season, Gare recorded three of his 10 career hat tricks as a Sabre. In 1979-80, he scored a career-high 56 goals, including a club-record 11 game-winners. Rick Martin is the only other Sabre to have two 50-goal seasons. With 267 goals as a Sabre, Gare holds the record for goals by a Sabres right wing. He finished his Sabres career with 500 points. Gare's career as a Sabre came to an end on Dec. 2, 1981 when he was traded to the Detroit Red Wings. He spent his final NHL season in Edmonton in 1986-87. The Nelson, British Columbia. native finished his career with 685 points (354+331) and was inducted into the Sabres Hall of Fame in 1994.

Pat LaFontaine enjoyed an illustrious 15-year career before retiring from the NHL in 1998 as the second-highest scoring American-born player with 468 goals and 1,013 points. He was born in St. Louis, but grew up in the suburbs of Detroit, and is still considered one of the game's best playmakers, fastest skaters, and most humble superstars. A member of the Hockey Hall of Fame in Toronto, LaFontaine began his career in 1983-84 with the New York Islanders. He had a career year for Buffalo in 1992-93 when he set Sabres records for points (148) and assists (95) in a season. After being sidelined by a serious knee injury for most of the 1993-94 season, he returned as team captain in 1994-95 and was awarded the Bill Masterton Trophy for perseverance and dedication to hockey. LaFontaine was with the Sabres from 1991-1997, finishing with 385 points (158+227) in 268 games. He completed the "Empire State Hat Trick" by playing for all three NHL organizations within New York State when he was traded to the Rangers in 1997. He remained one of the Rangers' leading scorers until injuries forced him to prematurely retire on Aug. 11, 1998.

Originally acquired by the Sabres from the Chicago Blackhawks on Aug. 7, 1992, Dominik Hasek remains one of the most decorated goaltenders in team and league history, appearing in a total of 491 games for the Blue & Gold during a span of nine seasons from 1992-2001. Hasek appeared in a career-high 72 games for the club in the 1997-98 season, setting a team record with 13 shutouts, only to follow that up with a career-best 1.87 goals-against average, .937 save percentage and a Stanley Cup Final berth in 1998-99. While backstopping the Sabres, he became the first goaltender in NHL history to win the Hart Trophy twice (1997 & 1998), while also capturing six Vezina Trophies (1994, 1995, 1997, 1998, 1999 & 2001) as well as the William M. Jennings Trophy (1994 & 2001) and the Lester B. Pearson Award (1997 & 1998) twice each. By the end of his time in Buffalo, Hasek held every meaningful franchise goaltending record and still owns the team's career and single-season records (all from 1998-99) for shutouts (55 career/13 single-season), save percentage (.926/.937) and goals-against average (2.22/1.87).

BUFFALO SABRES ALUMNI PLAZA | KEYBANK CENTER

On October 12, 2012, the Buffalo Sabres unveiled the newly named 'Alumni Plaza' outside the team's arena, designed to honor all former members of the team. As part of the plaza's transformation, the six concrete columns that support a pedestrian walkway above the plaza were surrounded by bricks and mortar. Every player ever to play a game for the franchise is commemorated with a plaque on those bricks, detailing his first game with the Sabres.

Also unveiled that day was the centerpiece of Alumni Plaza: a cast in bronze statue depicting the French Connection. Composed of center Gilbert Perreault, left wing Rick Martin and right wing Rene Robert, the French Connection is widely considered to be one of the greatest forward lines in NHL history and remains the most celebrated offensive unit in Buffalo Sabres history. The trio, all of whom were French-Canadian, was dubbed 'The French Connection' – after the 1971 film of the same name – and played together in Buffalo from the team's acquisition of Robert on March 4, 1972 until his departure on October 5, 1979.

Between them, the members of The French Connection played 2,396 games for the Sabres, scoring 1,116 goals and registering 2,573 total points. During their tenure in Buffalo, the three were honored with a combined 15 NHL All-Star Game appearances and seven selections to the First and Second NHL All-Star Teams. All three are members of the Sabres Hall of Fame and have had their numbers officially retired from use by the Sabres. Perreault, the franchise's first ever draft pick, served as the team's captain for five seasons and retired after 17 NHL seasons – all with the Sabres.

Inspiration for the statue came from a photograph taken during a playoff game at Memorial Auditorium on April 27, 1975 which features all three members of The French Connection. The photograph was taken by award-winning photographer Ron Moscati. During the game in which the photograph was taken, all three members of the French Connection scored a goal to lead the Sabres to a playoff win against the Montreal Canadiens.

To design and construct the statue, the Sabres commissioned distinguished American sculptor Jerry McKenna. McKenna is well known for his sports statues, and was named the 2003 'Sports Sculptor of the Year' by the All-American Football Foundation. A specially-designed pedestal, constructed by HHL Architects of Buffalo, features an integrated lighting system and an illuminated informational panel which provides a base for the statue.

UNIFORM 1970 TO 2020

Equipped with one of the National Hockey League's two new teams, the Knox Brothers sought a name for the club that would accompany the Vancouver Canucks into the 1970-71 season. A contest brought about the name "Sabres," which just needed a logo to become the trademark of hockey on the Niagara Frontier. The Sabres crest would remain identical over the first 26 years.

The crest which would adorn the blue, white and gold jerseys of Buffalo Sabres players from October 1970 until April 1996 reflected the team's name. Along with the buffalo appeared two crossed sabres "renowned as a clean, sharp, decisive and penetrating weapon on offense, as well as a strong parrying weapon on defense," according to team Public Relations Director Chuck Burr's 1970 press release.

A few minor changes were seen in the Buffalo sweaters over the first 26 years, mostly simple accessory changes. After adding players' last names to the back of the sweaters a few years earlier, 1978-79 marked the first season the team's jerseys did not have drawstrings at the neckline and the debut of the team's crest on the shoulders.

While the next season was Buffalo's 10th anniversary campaign, a patch honoring that winter's Olympic Games in Lake Placid, New York, was the notable change on the uniforms. The 1980 Winter Olympics is where the legendary "Miracle on Ice" would take place, and where the Sabres held their 1980 training camp. It was probably fitting that 10 years later, a Buffalo Sabres' 20th anniversary logo patch was embroidered on the front right shoulder of the players' uniforms for 1989-90. Two years later, the Sabres joined the other NHL teams in wearing a commemorative patch for the league's 75th anniversary, and fans even had the opportunity to see it on both the home and road jerseys as Buffalo joined 15 other teams in the season-long celebration. For the second half of that season, the Sabres wore their road jerseys at home and donned the home jerseys for away games, to complement the "original six" teams who wore "throwback jerseys." A Stanley Cup centennial patch appeared on the 1992-93 uniforms. Buffalo would again recognize a significant anniversary with a special 25th anniversary logo, which was designed for the team's 1994-95 campaign. Players wore the fifth patch in seven years on the team's sweaters in 1995-96 (bearing jersey number one), remembering former NHL goalie Roger Crozier, who played six of his 14 seasons in the league in Buffalo.

The 1996-97 season began a new era in Buffalo Sabres hockey with a new home, new colors and a new logo. The Sabres' new colors would be black, white, red, gray and silver, featuring a white buffalo head as the new team logo. A secondary logo of a "B" with the familiar sabre piercing through it would also be featured on the shoulder of the new jerseys. In their first season in the new uniforms, the Sabres honored the memory of co-founder Seymour H. Knox III with a circular patch bearing the initials SHK III.

On Nov. 22, 2000, the Sabres unveiled the team's first-ever alternate jersey against the Philadelphia Flyers. The jersey paid tribute to the team's original sweater, while also incorporating colors and elements from the 1996 design. The organization chose from more than 50 different concepts and developed an homage to the original blue and gold crest -- featuring the traditional circle and crossed Sabres logo -- adorned on a red-based jersey, trimmed in the team's black and silver of the 1990s. The word "BUFFALO" appeared on the lower trim to signify the team's proud attachment to its hometown. The third jersey also featured the current Sabres white buffalo-head logo, which appeared on the shoulders. Though it didn't represent a change to their official uniform scheme, the Sabres' next alternate jersey appeared when the team donned its original blue and yellow colors with the former logo and design for the season finale, April 4, 2003, against New Jersey.

Following the tragic events in Manhattan on Sept. 11, 2001, the Sabres took on the Rangers in New York's regular-season home opener at Madison Square Garden as the nation healed. As a sign of solidarity, the Sabres wore a modified version of their black, white and red jerseys with the Rangers' diagonal "New York" script replacing the buffalo head across the front. Both teams' jerseys were auctioned off, raising $215,000 for the Twin Towers Fund.

The Sabres' next uniform scheme, unveiled on September 16, 2006, took its inspiration from the original Sabres uniform (1970-1996) and the team's second uniform (1996-2005). The team returned to a blue and gold color scheme with the franchise's original colors altered to a deeper navy blue and richer gold. Silver accents and a revised "B-Sabre" logo were carried over from the team's second uniform. Unique in the NHL, the new uniforms had player numbers on the front of the jersey. Buffalo also debuted a new alternate uniform that updated the original blue uniform from 1970 by adding the player number on the front to match the newly designed uniforms. The alternate jersey was only worn for the 2006-07 season.

For the Winter Classic game on Jan. 1, 2008, the Sabres wore a modified version of the team's original white jerseys. This was the only time the jersey was worn that season.

The Sabres introduced a new third jersey in 2008-09 that incorporated design elements from the original uniforms while linking elements from the current jerseys. The team's original road uniform (1970-1996) was updated to incorporate the team's darker navy blue and rich gold colors, along with silver accents on the stripes to give dimension to the original design. The player numbers appeared on the front of the uniform and a neck tie was incorporated as a nod to the team's original uniform. The original crossed Sabres logo also featured silver accents to give a beveled look to the team's original logo. The jersey was designed to incorporate the design elements of the Reebok EDGE uniform system.

During the 2010-11 season, the Sabres adopted a uniform at home and on the road that recalled elements of the first uniform in franchise history. At home, the Sabres utilized the team's previous third jersey. On the road, they donned a white jersey that incorporates the same accent elements of the updated home jersey. The team also unveiled an all-new 40th anniversary uniform. This classically designed uniform was a tribute to not only the history of Buffalo hockey, but also to early NHL jersey designs of the past. The 40th anniversary alternate jersey was worn 12 times at HSBC Arena during the 2010-11 season and continued to serve as the team's alternate jersey in 2011-12.

The Sabres unveiled another new alternate jersey prior to the 2013-14 season that the team would wear for two seasons. Challenged by Sabres ownership to use gold as the primary jersey color for the first time in team history, the Sabres' creative team – in collaboration with Reebok – created a two-tone jersey with gold as the primary color on the front and navy blue on the back. A newly designed Buffalo Sabres wordmark appeared on the players' pant leg as well as just below the neckline on the main jersey, right above the Sabres' traditional crest on the front of the jersey. Additionally, a unique font and number art were designed by Reebok and were inspired by the tips of actual sabers. The all-new font was used for the jersey numbers as well as players' names. Captain and alternate captain insignia incorporated crossed sabers as design elements and the patches were moved from the traditional spot on the chest to the shoulder of the jersey.

The team saw minor changes to both its home and road jerseys when the NHL partnered with adidas before the 2017-18 season to unveil new authentic jerseys for all 31 NHL teams utilizing the company's ADIZERO technology and design elements. While each Sabres jersey retained its general appearance, the most significant changes were the removal of the silver piping and gray accents on the sides of the jerseys.

The Sabres appeared in their second Winter Classic in on Jan. 1, 2018, the 10-year anniversary of the inaugural game in Buffalo. To commemorate the occasion, the team wore a white jersey that combined design concepts from the franchise's early years with modifications of the team's current logo and elements from the team's 40th anniversary jersey. In addition to minor illustration adjustments to the logo's buffalo and swords, the initials "NY" were added as a marker of the intrastate matchup. The crest and the numbers on the official game jerseys were executed in felt and faux leather materials as a nod to historical "hockey sweater" material construction.

In addition to the crest, the uniform featured three secondary marks: a newly designed shoulder patch that abstracted the buffalo from the crest and filled it with the team's name; a pair of crossed swords on the pants, also abstracted from the crest; and the Buffalo script wordmark from team's 40th anniversary jersey, now located on the helmet. Following the Winter Classic, the team wore a Winter Classic-style jersey with minor modifications to the one worn at the outdoor game as an alternate jersey for three home games in 2018.

In August 2019, the team unveiled a new alternate jersey to be worn for the team's "Golden Season" 50th anniversary celebration in 2019-20. The jersey was made up of a white base adorned with the iconic Sabres crest in fluorescent gold and navy blue. In homage to the team's history, the jersey included five stripes representing each of the franchise's decades on both sleeves and the jersey's bottom, as well as an inner neckline featuring logos from throughout the team's history.

The Golden Season alternate jersey was only part of the team's 2019 nod toward the past – the Sabres also announced that the 2019-20 season would be the final time the team would wear their navy uniforms, as the team would return to royal blue as its primary color in 2020-21. Unveiled in August 2020, the team's current royal blue, gold, and white uniform marks a return to the franchise's original look with only minor changes made to the classic jerseys; most notably, the striping on the blue jersey has been altered to introduce white piping on top of the original gold stripes. The crest has also been slightly simplified from the original, with silver accents removed to create a sleek modern appeal. Details first seen in the 50th season jersey crest have been carried over to this uniform system, most notably the stitching pattern on the buffalo.

The 2020-21 season featured yet another homage to the team's history: As part of the NHL's Reverse Retro campaign, the Sabres unveiled an alternate jersey in November 2020 modeled after the team's first-ever alternate sweater. The updated design recolored the original alternate, worn from 2000-01 through 2005-06, to match the team's current royal blue and gold color scheme.

CLUB AFFILIATION HISTORY
AHL AFFILIATE

HISTORY OF AFFILIATION | EST 1979

After three seasons with the Portland Pirates, the Buffalo Sabres renewed their affiliation with the Rochester Americans before the 2011-12 season. The 2020-21 season will mark the 39th season of affiliation between the Sabres and Amerks, one of the longest relationships between an NHL team and its AHL affiliate.

The Amerks are entering their historic 65th season in the American Hockey League and the team will once again be an essential pipeline for future Sabres stars.

It was during the 1979-80 campaign that the two organizations first formed a professional hockey partnership. Billy Inglis was the first head coach of the Amerks during the affiliation. Future coaches would include Mike Keenan (1994, New York Rangers) and John Tortorella (Tampa Bay Lightning, 2004), who both went on to coach NHL teams to Stanley Cup victories.

In 38 years of affiliation, the Amerks have compiled a record of 1,464-1,174-352 in 2,990 regular-season games and captured nine division titles. During that period, the Amerks have captured three Calder Cup Championships (1983, 1987 and 1996) and have advanced to the Calder Cup Finals a total of nine times.

The Sabres and Pirates enjoyed a successful three-year affiliation (2008-09—2010-11), with the Pirates compiling a 131-79-30 overall record and a first-place finish in the Atlantic Division in 2010-11. During the three-year span, three Pirates players were named Dudley "Red" Garrett Memorial Award winners, an award given to the AHL's most outstanding rookie: Nathan Gerbe (2008-09), Tyler Ennis (2009-10) and Luke Adam (2010-11).

Besides the Sabres, the Amerks have been affiliated with the Montreal Canadiens, Toronto Maple Leafs, Minnesota North Stars, Boston Bruins, Vancouver Canucks, Quebec Nordiques and Florida Panthers.

SETH APPERT HEAD COACH

Seth Appert enters his first season as head coach of the Rochester Americans in 2020-21 after being named to the position on Aug. 18, 2020.

The 33rd head coach in the 64-year history of the franchise, Appert has a long history of developing players at all levels. He has spent the last three years alternating between head coaching duties for the Under-18 and Under-17 teams at USA Hockey's National Team Development Program (NTDP).

With the NTDP, Appert oversaw a development model that produced an NHL-record 17 draft picks in the 2019 NHL Draft, including eight that were selected in the first round. Among those picks was the highly touted forward Jack Hughes, who was chosen first overall by the New Jersey Devils.

During his first season with the NTDP in 2017-18, Appert guided the Under-18 Team to a gold medal at the Five Nations Tournament while also helping Team USA to an Eastern Conference-best 41-18-0-1 record during the regular season, the team's best finish since joining the United States Hockey League prior to the 2009-10 campaign. Team USA, which featured incoming defenseman and 2018 Buffalo Sabres second-round pick Mattias Samuelsson, led the USHL in wins (41) and tied for second in overall points (83) behind only the Waterloo Black Hawks.

In 2018, Appert led the U.S. Under-18 Men's National Team to a silver medal at the IIHF Under-18 World Championship after capturing gold at the same tournament the year before as an assistant coach in 2017. His international resume also includes back-to-back years as an assistant coach with the U.S. National Team, winning a bronze medal at the Men's IIHF World Championship in 2018.

Prior to joining USA Hockey, the Cottage Grove, Minnesota, native spent 20 years in the NCAA Division I collegiate coaching ranks, including 11 seasons as head coach of the men's program at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute (RPI). The Engineers advanced to the postseason each year under Appert, who guided the team to an appearance in the 2011 NCAA Tournament following a 20-win season before leading RPI to its best finish in more than two decades just two years later with a second-place finish in the ECAC standings to conclude the 2012-13 campaign. The first two seasons of Appert's tenure at RPI were highlighted by back-to-back titles in the Governor's Cup Tournament – the program's first titles of any kind since 1998 – in addition to earning points against six nationally-ranked opponents.

Appert, who formerly served as president of the American Hockey Coaches Association, also spent nine seasons as an assistant coach at the University of Denver, where he helped the Pioneers to a pair of NCAA National Championships as well as three WCHA playoff championships and two WCHA regular-season titles. The Pioneers also averaged more than 23 wins per season with Appert behind the bench.

Over his 20 years at the collegiate level, Appert has aided in the development of 13 All-Americans, 37 all-league selections, four Players of the Year, four Hobey Baker Finalists and at least 23 players who have graduated to the NHL, including former Amerks Jerry D'Amigo, Jason Kasdorf and Erik Burgdoerfer.

Appert is a product of the NCAA himself, having been a four-year letter-winner as a goaltender at Ferris State University from 1992-96.

He owns a bachelor's degree in public relations from Ferris State and earned his master's degree in management from the University of Denver in 1999. Appert and his wife, Jill, have two daughters, Addi and Campbell.

ADAM MAIR ASSISTANT COACH

Adam Mair enters his first season as an assistant coach with the Rochester Americans in 2020-21 after being named to the position on Sept. 17, 2020.

Mair joins the Amerks coaching staff following five seasons as a player development coach with the Buffalo Sabres, where he was instrumental in the development of the organization's top prospects. Mair made his pro coaching debut in 2019-20 when he served as an interim assistant coach for Rochester's first 18 games of the season, helping the Amerks go 12-3-1-2 over that span and maintain a first-place standing in the American Hockey League's North Division.

Prior to serving as player development coach for the Sabres, the Hamilton, Ontario, native spent two years as a coach at the Academy of Hockey and two years as the director of player development at Canisius College in Buffalo, joining the program shortly after his retirement following the 2011-12 season.

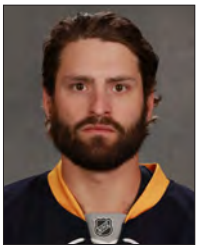
A fourth-round pick (84th overall) of the Toronto Maple Leafs in 1997, Mair spent the bulk of his 13-year pro playing career with the Sabres, playing a significant role in the team's run to the Eastern Conference Finals in 2007. He finished his career with 114 points in (38+76) in 615 regular-season NHL games with Toronto, Los Angeles, Buffalo and New Jersey as well as eight points (3+5) in 35 playoff contests.

He also added 120 points (53+67) in 172 American Hockey League appearances for the St. John's Maple Leafs, Manchester Monarchs and Springfield Falcons, including a career-high 49-point campaign as a rookie during the 1999-00 season.

Internationally, he helped Team Canada to a silver medal with two points (1+1) in seven games at the 1999 IIHF World Junior Championship.

He and his wife, Elizabeth, have three sons: twins William and Finley (4), and Graham (1).

MIKE WEBER ASSISTANT COACH



Mike Weber enters his first season as an assistant coach with the Rochester Americans in 2020-21 after being named to the position on Sept. 17, 2020.

Weber embarks on his pro coaching career after spending the previous three years as an assistant coach with the Windsor Spitfires of the Ontario Hockey League. In 2019-20, Weber guided the Spitfires to a third-place finish in the OHL's West Division with a 34-20-8-0 overall record and what would have been their fifth-straight playoff appearance prior to the cancellation of the season due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

A native of Pittsburgh, Weber transitioned into coaching with Windsor midway through the 2017-18 season following an 11-year playing career as a defenseman. A second-round pick (57th overall) of the Sabres in 2006, Weber recorded 53 points (9+44) and 437 penalty minutes, playing all but 10 of his 351 NHL games for Buffalo prior to a brief stint with the Washington Capitals.

Weber also totaled 51 points (8+43) in 237 career AHL games, most recently serving as team captain of the Iowa Wild in 2016-17. He made his pro debut with the Amerks in 2007-08, his lone season in Rochester, and would spend a majority of the following two seasons with the Portland Pirates, leading the team to a playoff appearance in 2010 after a career-high 21 points during the regular season.

He was rewarded with a trip to the AHL All-Star Classic in 2010 before going to spend the next six full seasons in the NHL.

He and his wife, Janine, are the parents to three sons: Emerson (7), JJ (4) and Harrison (2).

RICK JEANNERET | PLAY-BY-PLAY ANNOUNCER

Currently the longest-tenured broadcaster in hockey, Rick Jeanneret will begin his 50th year behind the microphone calling the action for Buffalo Sabres games. Jeanneret was the 2012 recipient of the Foster Hewitt Memorial Award – the most prestigious award given to hockey broadcasters – and was formally recognized by the Hockey Hall of Fame in November 2012. He was inducted into the Sabres Hall of Fame in 2011 and was inducted into the Greater Buffalo Sports Hall of Fame in fall 2012.

With his vast knowledge of the game and his unwavering enthusiasm for hockey, Jeanneret's distinct voice has been synonymous with the Buffalo Sabres for over four decades. He began his prolific career with the Sabres in the 1971-72 season as the club's radio play-by-play announcer and served primarily in that role until 1995, when he began calling the action for the team's televised games as well. His memorable calls and player nicknames have become forever linked with Sabres history for generations of fans.

Jeanneret's career officially began in 1963, when the St. Catharines, Ontario native filled in for the regular announcer at a Niagara Falls Flyers (Junior A) game. He went on to become the color analyst for one season before moving to the play-by-play position in 1965.

Jeanneret currently resides in Niagara Falls, Ontario with his wife, Sandra. Rick has two sons, Mark and Chris.

DAN DUNLEAVY | PLAY-BY-PLAY ANNOUNCER/REPORTER

Prior to joining the Sabres broadcast team in 2013, Dan Dunleavy spent 19 years at Sportsnet Radio and The Fan 590 Toronto. In addition to filling in as a play-by-play voice for the Sabres in the 2010-11 season, Dunleavy's experience includes nine years of play-by-play for the IIHF World Junior Hockey Championship, the 2008 IIHF World Hockey Championship in Halifax and Quebec City, Men's and Women's Hockey at the 2010 Vancouver Olympics, the OHL's Mississauga Majors, and Canadian Hockey League and American Hockey League games on Rogers Sportsnet.

The Toronto native has also called soccer and lacrosse games, serving as the play-by-play voice for the National Lacrosse League's Toronto Rock on The Fan 590 and the radio and television play-by-play voice for Toronto FC on Sportsnet TV/Radio and TSN 1050 Radio.

Dunleavy currently resides in Fort Erie, Ontario with his wife, Brenda.

ROB RAY | COLOR ANALYST

Rob Ray, who begins his 17th season on Buffalo Sabres broadcasts, will be entering his ninth season as the full-time color analyst for all Sabres games this season. After joining the broadcast team in 2003-04, Ray has served as a color analyst and the "between-the-benches" reporter for the past 16 years. In his role as color analyst, Ray remains at ice level to provide a close-up perspective of the game's action.

Ray's hockey expertise stems from his 16-year NHL career as a right wing, 14 seasons of which were spent with the Sabres. Known for his toughness on the ice, Ray ranks sixth in NHL history for career penalty minutes (3,207) and holds the Sabres' team record in the same category with 3,189 penalty minutes. Ray played in 900 total NHL games during his career and 889 games with the Sabres, the fourth-most in franchise history.

Despite being one of the game's toughest enforcers, Ray was also awarded the NHL's King Clancy Memorial Award in 1999 for his leadership and humanitarianism. He remains as one of the Sabres' most active alumni, currently serving as president of the Sabres Alumni Association. Ray and his wife, Julianne, live in East Amherst, New York with their son, Rob Jr., and their daughter, Jordan.

BRIAN DUFF | STUDIO HOST

Entering his 10th season with the Buffalo Sabres, studio host Brian Duff has nearly 30 years of experience in the broadcasting industry, with the majority of it devoted to covering the NHL.

An original member of NHL Network at the time of its launch in the United States in 2007, Duff served as the lead host for the network's signature events, including the Stanley Cup Final, the NHL All-Star Game and the NHL Draft.

Duff's tenure with the Sabres began on a part-time basis in 2011-12, when he hosted many of the team's road games while also completing his fifth season at NHL Network. Outside of his game night duties on MSG, Duff is also a regular content contributor to Sabres.com and has been a part of multiple New York Emmy Award wins as a member of the production team responsible for series such as Beyond Blue & Gold.

A native of Whitby, Ontario, Duff served as a broadcast host on radio and/or television for the Edmonton Oilers, Ottawa Senators and Toronto Maple Leafs between 1994 and 2007. He is also an avid fan of lacrosse and has done play-by-play and commentary for the National Lacrosse League, including the league's championship games in 2010, 2011, 2016 and 2017.

MARTY BIRON | STUDIO ANALYST

Martin Biron is in his fourth season as the studio analyst for the Buffalo Sabres after being named to the position in August 2017. His primary role is to serve as an analyst alongside Brian Duff during the pregame, intermission and postgame portions of the broadcast. Biron will also provide in-game analysis at select times both at ice level and in the broadcast booth.

Biron was the Sabres' first-round pick in the 1995 NHL Draft and went on to rank fourth in franchise history among goaltenders with 300 games played in his nine seasons with the club. In 2007, he was traded to the Philadelphia Flyers and led the team to the 2008 Eastern Conference Final. Following his time in Philadelphia, Biron went on to spend time with the Islanders and Rangers before retiring from the NHL in October 2013.

In addition to his role on the Sabres' broadcast, Bison is a frequent contributor to The Instigators and produces content for Sabres.com. He also assists with the goaltending program for the Academy of Hockey.
